

Henry Horton State Park Presents

The Autumn Featured Program Series

Friday October 6th

Owl Prowl 8:00pm

Bring a flashlight to the Wilhoite Trailhead (located across HWY 31A from the campground entrance) to venture into the dark in search of these enchanting birds.

Saturday November 4th

Fall Color Hike 10:00am

Join us for a hike on Hickory Ridge to admire the fall foliage, and learn why leaves change color in autumn. The trail is 1.5 miles, so wear comfortable shoes.

Friday October 13th

Arachnophobia 7:30pm

Meet at the interpretive center to face your fears of these creepy crawly critters. We will learn why spiders are important for nature, and how to identify “deadly” species of Tennessee.

Saturday November 11th

Oh, Deer!! 6:00pm

It's deer hunting season!! Come to the interpretive center to learn why hunting seasons are important. Also learn how to age deer by looking at their teeth.

Saturday October 21st

Pumpkin Painting 5:00pm

Meet at the interpretive center to learn the folklore and history behind pumpkin carving. Then let the creative juices flow and paint your very own pumpkin. Pumpkins are limited so feel free to bring your own. Painting supplies will be provided. (Call the park office at 931-364-7724 to sign-up).

Saturday November 18th

Turkey Time 4:30pm

Benjamin Franklin wanted the turkey to be the national bird. If his wish came true, what would we eat for Thanksgiving? Come to the interpretive center to learn about the natural history of this tasty bird.

Friday October 27th

Ghost Story Campfire 8:00pm

Do you know a scary ghost story? What better place to share it than next to a campfire!! So bring your best story to the fire ring next to the interpretive center and share.. if you dare.

*Note: Henry Horton State Park offers other programs. The programs listed above are the featured programs. Check with the park office (931-364-7724) for the weekly schedule of programs.
